

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor Proclamation

State Capital
Boise

WHEREAS, the State of Idaho includes a growing number of older Americans who enrich our community through their diverse life experiences; and

WHEREAS, the State of Idaho is committed to strengthening our community by connecting with and supporting older adults, their families, and caregivers and acknowledging their many valuable contributions to society; and

WHEREAS, the State of Idaho recognizes the importance of bringing together all generations and engaging in activities that promote physical, mental, and emotional well-being for the benefit of all; and

WHEREAS, the State of Idaho can enhance the lives of older Americans in our community by promoting home and community-based services that support independent living, involving older adults in community events and other activities, and providing opportunities for older adults to work, volunteer, learn, lead, and mentor;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Brad Little, Governor of Idaho, do hereby proclaim the month of May 2019, to be

OLDER AMERICANS MONTH

and encourage citizens to recognize older adults and the people who serve them as essential and valuable members of the community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 2nd day of May, in the year of our Lord two thousand and nineteen and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred forty-third and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred twenty-ninth.

BRAD LITTLE
GOVERNOR

LAWRENCE DENNEY
