The Office of the Governor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, experts agree nutrition status is a direct measure of health and good nutrition can keep people healthy and out of health care institutions; and

WHEREAS, inadequate or unbalanced nutrition, known as malnutrition, is prevalent in many groups, including vulnerable populations such as hospitalized patients and minority populations, with older adults having the highest rate of malnutrition compared to other groups; and

WHEREAS, illness, injury, and malnutrition can result in the loss of lean body mass, leading to complications that impact good patient health outcomes, including recovery from surgery, illness, or disease; and

WHEREAS, disease-related malnutrition is a highly prevalent form of malnutrition; and

WHEREAS, more than 2 million hospital stays involve malnutrition per year, approximately 15,000 hospital patients with malnutrition go undiagnosed each day, and malnourished patients have two times longer hospital stays compared to patients with no malnutrition; and

WHEREAS, malnutrition leads to more complications, falls, and readmissions, and plays a role in cognitive deterioration and decreased functional capacity; and

WHEREAS, screening, assessment, diagnosis, and intervention are key to improving malnutrition in the United States

NOW, THEREFORE, I, BRAD LITTLE, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim September 19-23, 2022, to be in Idaho.

MALNUTRITION AWARENESS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 19th day of September, in the year of our Lord two thousand and twenty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred forty-seventh, and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred thirty-third.

GOVERNOR
